

Position Description

Contract Baseball Skills Coach (Independent Contractor – 1099)

Organization

Patriots Performance Training Center (PPTC)

Position Type

Independent Contractor (1099)

This position does not constitute employment.

Role Purpose

The Contract Baseball Skills Coach provides high-quality, age-appropriate baseball instruction to youth and adolescent athletes participating in Patriots Performance Training Center programs. Coaches are engaged for their baseball-specific expertise and are responsible for delivering skill development aligned with PPTC training standards, safety expectations, and long-term athlete development principles.

Scope of Services

Contract Baseball Skills Coaches may be engaged to deliver one or more of the following services, based on qualifications and program needs:

- Baseball skill instruction (e.g., hitting, throwing, fielding, base running)
- Position-specific training (e.g., infield, outfield, catching; pitching only if qualified and approved)
- Small-group or individual baseball instruction
- Team-based skill sessions or supplemental training

- Camps, clinics, or seasonal baseball programs
- Special events or targeted skill-development sessions

The specific scope, frequency, and duration of services will be defined in a separate Independent Contractor Agreement or written engagement addendum.

Key Responsibilities

- Plan and deliver safe, effective, and developmentally appropriate baseball training sessions
- Demonstrate proper baseball techniques, drills, and progressions consistent with PPTC standards
- Emphasize fundamentals, skill progression, and age-appropriate instruction
- Maintain a positive, professional, and athlete-centered training environment
- Enforce facility rules, safety protocols, and athlete conduct expectations
- Communicate professionally with athletes, parents/guardians, and PPTC leadership as needed
- Promptly report safety concerns, injuries, or incidents
- Protect confidential athlete and organizational information
- Represent the Patriots brand in a manner consistent with organizational values and conduct standards

Required Qualifications

- Demonstrated experience coaching or instructing youth or adolescent baseball players
- Strong knowledge of baseball fundamentals and skill development
- Understanding of age-appropriate athlete development principles

- Ability to manage individuals and small groups safely and effectively
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to maintain appropriate professional boundaries with athletes and families
- Legal authorization to work in the United States

Preferred Qualifications (Role-Dependent)

- Competitive playing or coaching experience in baseball
- Position-specific expertise (e.g., hitting, catching, pitching mechanics)
- Prior experience conducting small-group or individual skill instruction
- Relevant certifications (e.g., CPR/First Aid, baseball or coaching credentials)
- Experience working in training facilities, academies, or organized baseball programs

Independent Contractor Status

Contract Baseball Skills Coaches:

- Operate as independent contractors and control how services are performed
- Provide their own coaching expertise, instruction methods, and professional judgment
- Are responsible for all applicable taxes, insurance, and business expenses
- Are not eligible for employee wages, benefits, or guaranteed hours
- May provide services to other organizations, subject to conflict-of-interest standards

Compliance & Safeguarding Requirements

All Contract Baseball Skills Coaches must:

- Successfully complete required background checks
- Maintain current CPR/First Aid certification (if applicable to the role)
- Comply with PPTC safeguarding, supervision, and youth-protection policies
- Adhere to all applicable laws, regulations, and facility rules

Physical & Environmental Requirements

- Ability to demonstrate baseball skills, movements, and drills
- Ability to stand, move, throw, and instruct in an indoor training environment
- Ability to lift, move, and set up baseball training equipment as needed

Engagement & Scheduling

- Coaching engagements are scheduled by mutual agreement
- No minimum hours or guaranteed volume of work
- Sessions may include evenings, weekends, or seasonal peak periods

Agreement Acknowledgment

Engagement in this role is contingent upon execution of an Independent Contractor Agreement, completion of required compliance documentation (including IRS Form W-9), and approval by Patriots Performance Training Center leadership.
